"Old World" Margherita Pizza

Raffaele Esposito created this pizza to honor Queen Margherita's visit to Naples, Italy in 1889. He created a special pizza, which resembled the Italian flag. The pizza consisted of basil (green), mozzarella (white) and tomatoes (red). This set the standard for our modern day pizza. This patriotic pizza was an instant success with the King and Queen. He named this pizza in honor of the Queen... The Margherita.

Over the years chefs have added their own interpretation. Below are three of ours:
